

Hellenic Film Society USA Announces December Film Selections For Always on Sunday on Demand, Monthly Greek Film Series Streaming Worldwide

Astoria, NY — December 1, 2020 — Hellenic Film Society USA (HFS) has announced the two award-winning films that it will stream worldwide in December, as part of its Always on Sunday on Demand Greek film series. EYES OF NIGHT and GUINNESS will begin streaming Sunday, December 6 and will be available any time, from any device around the world, until Saturday, January 2, 2021.

EYES OF NIGHT, written and directed Periklis Hoursoglou is a gripping drama about three flawed people in search of love and connection. Not widely seen after its initial release, the film signaled the new sophistication and world-class aspirations of modern Greek cinema. GUINNESS, a satire directed by Alexis Kardaras, tells the tale of a down-on-his-luck gambler trying to turn his life around. Both films are in Greek with English subtitles.

“We are delighted by the response we’ve gotten to our new streaming Greek film series, which we launched in November,” says Jimmy DeMetro, President of Hellenic Film Society USA. “This confirms our guiding principle that there is an enthusiastic audience for quality Greek films.”

Always on Sunday on Demand is an outgrowth of the Always on Sunday film series which began at the prestigious Museum of the Moving Image in Astoria, NY in 2018. The new monthly series follows the successful virtual Greek film festival that HFS presented in July after the pandemic forced movie theaters to close indefinitely, precluding the presentation of the New York Greek Film Expo, the Society’s annual spring film festival in theaters around the New York metropolitan area.

About the Hellenic Film Society USA

The Hellenic Film Society USA (HFS) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization rooted in the belief that Greek cinema can and should be part of the American cultural landscape.
