

Hellenic Film Society USA Presents APPLES, Sunday, June 12 at the Museum of the Moving Image in Astoria, NY

Astoria, NY – May 24, 2022 – The Hellenic Film Society USA (HFS) presents the critically acclaimed film, Apples, on Sunday, June 12 at the Museum of the Moving Image (MoMI) in Astoria, Queens. The presentation is part of HFS's Always on Sunday series of monthly Greek film screenings at MoMI.

Directed by Christos Nikou in his feature film debut, Apples takes place amid a worldwide pandemic that causes sudden amnesia. Aris, portrayed by award-winning actor Aris Servetalis, finds himself enrolled in a program designed to help him build a new identity and reintegrate into society, when he meets a woman also trying to recover. The film is in Greek and English, with English subtitles.

"Apples is a wonderfully rich allegorical film and a remarkable debut by director Christos Nikou," says Jimmy DeMetro, president of the Hellenic Film Society USA. "It is being marketed as a 'Greek Weird Wave' film, but unlike most of the films in that category, Apples has an unmistakable humanity at its core, and that sets it apart. We are happy to show it just before its national US release."

Apples, which Variety calls "soulfully relevant," received 17 international film festival awards and was Greece's official submission for Best International Film of the 93rd Academy Awards. The Hollywood Reporter said, "The originality of the premise, the uncanny timing of its wry grounding in a pandemic that's steadily reshaping society and the soulful observation of how we process loss and move on with our broken lives should ensure that [Apples] finds a responsive... audience." The film received 98% on the Rotten Tomatoes website.

A trailer for the film can be found on the Hellenic Film Society's YouTube channel.
